

SILENT RUSSIANS | LOUD BRAZILIANS

Masterpieces of Soviet silent cinema with live Brazilian avant-garde music

DECEMBER 13, 2013, AUDIO REBEL, RIO DE JANEIRO

On December 13 at Audio Rebel in Botafogo (Rio de Janeiro) Nova Experience Brasil and Ticún Brasil launch SILENT RUSSIANS | LOUD BRAZILIANS – the series of visual concerts featuring leading experimental musicians of Rio de Janeiro: Chinese Cookie Poets and Alexander Zhemchuzhnikov.

The show consists of a five movement piece that accompanies the selections from three Soviet silent cinema classics: STORM OVER ASIA (Vsevolod Pudovkin, 1928), CINEMA-EYE (Dziga Vertov, 1924), BED AND SOFA (Abram Room, 1927). Produced almost a century ago, these films raise timeless issues that are still relevant in contemporary society: national independence, the importance of social involvement and women rights.

In 2014 the series will be presented in diverse venues in Rio de Janeiro ranging from upscale neighborhoods of Leblon to cultural centers in favelas of Zona Norte, and tour around Brazil (São Paulo, Parati, Ouro Preto, Recife, Olinda and Belem) and overseas (US and Russia).

CHINESE COOKIE POETS + ALEXANDER ZHEMCHUZHNIKOV:

‘Wonderful genre-busting Brazilian free music. Ears should be open worldwide to these important voices’ – Cliff Allen, Tiny Mix Tapes

‘Excellent, in a spacious and sublime way ‘ – Dan Coffey, Avant Music News

‘CCP and Alex represent new experimental and innovative trends in Brazilian music, contributing to avant-garde scene of Rio with new projects capturing more and more local and international audiences’ – O Globo
